Issued: August 1, 2003 (proposed)

Subject: Elimination of Medicaid Local Procedure Codes and Conversion to National Procedure Codes for Practitioners

Effective: October 1, 2003

Programs Affected: Medicaid, Children's Special Health Care Services

This bulletin is to notify you of the procedure coding changes for practitioners that will be implemented by the Department of Community Health for dates of service on or after October 1, 2003. For dates of service prior to October 1, 2003, the Medicaid local procedure codes for practitioners will continue to be used. All Medicaid local procedure codes will be eliminated for practitioner services provided on or after October 1, 2003.

Listed below are the Medicaid local procedure codes being eliminated. All practitioners must use nationally standard procedure codes and modifiers for dates of service on or after October 1, 2003. NOTE: The units of service for the national procedure codes may differ from the units of service for the local procedure codes in some cases.

Refer to your 2003 CPT and HCPCS codebooks for the full descriptions of the national codes and for additional guidance for their use.

Information regarding fee screens and coverage parameters (when appropriate) for covered codes will be posted on the DCH website when available. The website address is www.michigan.gov/mdch, click on Providers, Information for Medicaid Providers, Medicaid Fee Screens.
